MOSCOW.

The main building of "Revvoyensovet" (Revolutionary Military Soviet) of the USSR was located on the corner of "Znamenka" Street (it has been renamed [redacted] and "Gogolevsky" boulevard (at "Arbatskaya" square). This 25X1 building was occupied by the "Alexandrovskoye" Military Cadet School before the revolution of 1917. "Revvoyensovet" occupies the whole block, and other buildings have been built up supplementarily to the main building. The Ministry of Navy of the USSR is located alongside of "Revvoyensovet", along "Gogolevsky" boulevard. The main building of "MVD" ("MGB") [redacted] is located on "Lubyanka" 25X1 Street, 2 Lubyanka (the corner of "Lubyanka" street and "Lubyanskaya" square). "Ts K Partii" (the Central Committee of the Communist Party) is located not far from "Nogina" square, overlooking "Chistiye Prudy" [redacted] 25X1 not know the location of the Moscow Committee of the Communist Party; it is possible that it is located in the "Mossoviet" building. The Regional Committee of the Communist Party of the Leninsky region of the city of Moscow is located [redacted] 25X1 in the "Lensoviet" building on "Polyanka" street, not far from "Serpukhovskaya" square (first street car stop from the square), on the left side of "Polyanka" street; if one is walking along the street from "Serpukhovskaya" square. The Regional Party Committee of the "Tagansky" region of the city of Moscow is located in the "Tagansky Soviet" building on "Taganka" street [redacted] 25X1 regional committees of the Young Communist League are located usually in the same buildings in which regional party committees are located. The Ministry of Heavy Machine-Building of the USSR was located on "Sadovo-Kudrinskaya" street [redacted] the number of the house was 14 or 16). The Ministry of Coal Industry [redacted] was located on "Nogina" square. 25X1 The Board of Soviet Property in Foreign Countries, under whose supervision are all enterprises which have amalgamated with so-called Soviet state joint-stock companies in Germany, Austria, Hungary, and so on, is located near the "Kursky" railroad station. Its address is unknown [redacted] but its location is determined by the 25X1 following scheme: one should leave the "Kursky" railroad station, cross the square of the "Kursky" railroad station, and turn to the left along the street which is parallel to the "Kursky" railroad station. A very large building, in which the above-mentioned board is located, will be on the right side of the street at a distance of a few-minute walk from the square of the "Kursky" railroad station. There is a smaller building, which also belongs to the board, in the yard behind the main building of the board. The large sizes of the buildings occupied by the board can be explained by the fact that the board [redacted] is, in reality, a multi-ministry and an establishment of great importance. The "Mossoviet" (Moscow municipal Soviet) building is located on "Gorky" Street ("Svobody" square). The building of the Regional Soviet of the Leninsky region of the city of Moscow (briefly called "Lensoviet") is located on "Polyanka" Street [redacted] 25X1 the Regional Soviet ("raisoviet") and the Regional Party Committee ("Raikom Partii") of the Tagansky region of the city of Moscow are located in the same building on "Taganka" street.
